

Student Name: _____ SID: _____

Gender & Women's Studies: Chicana/Latina Concentration MAJOR

The Major in Gender and Women's Studies consists of 36 units with the following requirements:

Required Courses Checklist	Credits	Semester Completed	Grade
GWS 240 – Gender in Transnational World
GWS 305 – Feminist Theories
Choose TWO GWS/MAS 307 – Chicana Feminist Theories GWS 309 – Queer Theories GWS 325 – Gender, Sexuality & International Migration GWS/MAS 358 – U.S. Third World Feminisms GWS/POL/HIST 386 – Race/Gender: Genealogies, Formations, Politics
GWS 498 – Senior Capstone (take fall semester of your senior year)
Choose THREE from the following: GWS/MAS 201 – Intro to Chicana/Latina Studies GWS 307 – Chicana Feminist Theories GWS 309 – Queer Theories GWS 312 – Latina/o Pop: Race, Gender, Sexuality & Popular Culture GWS 325 – Gender, Sexuality & International Migration MAS 365 – Latinos and Latinas: Emerging Contemporary Issues GWS/POL/HIST 386 – Race/Gender: Genealogies, Formations, Politics GWS/MAS 415 – Chicana/o Literary & Historical Recovery Projects GWS 425 – Gender, Culture, Capitalism MAS/GWS 485 – Mexicana/Chicana Women's History (writing emphasis)
Four additional GWS courses
GWS 200 or 300 or 400 level course (Course # _____)
GWS 300 or 400 level course (Course # _____)
GWS 300 or 400 level course (Course # _____)
GWS 300 or 400 level course (Course # _____)
Other optional GWS courses beyond requirements:
 At least 4 upper division courses must have GWS as the home department.		TOTAL

The requirements listed on this checklist are effective from Fall 2017 onward.

SECOND MAJOR AND/OR MINOR(S):

NOTES:

- Contracts for Independent Study (GWS 399, GWS 499) and Internships (GWS 393, GWS 493) must be developed with a faculty advisor and, in the case of internships, with an on-site supervisor. Each course can earn 1-6 units and can be approved to fulfill elective credits. See undergrad advisor for more information.
- No more than 12 units of Internship, Independent Study, or Preceptorship (GWS 293, GWS 299, GWS 299H, GWS 391, GWS 393, GWS 399, GWS 399H, GWS 499, GWS 499H) may be used for the GWS major.
- Alternatives to any requirements must be approved by the Gender and Women's Studies Advisor or Undergraduate Director.

General Advising Notes:

You need to be in touch with your major, minor, and General Education advisor to be sure you have all requirements covered. Be sure to keep copies of all paperwork and have advisors sign off at each stage of your career. Minimum passing grade for any GWS class is a C. You must go through the degree check process no later than your second-to-last semester in order to graduate.

Pass/Fail courses can not be applied to degree requirements. All Transfer coursework must be evaluated and approved by the GWS advisor or Undergraduate Director to count toward major degree requirements. Up to 18 units of transfer credit can count toward the 36 units required for the major. You are strongly advised to take 200 level coursework before 300 or 400 level GWS classes.

Student Signature _____ Date _____

Advisor Signature _____ Date _____