

Minor in Gender and Women's Studies

Core Foundations (Complete both courses)

- GWS 240 Gender in a Transnational World: Introduction to Gender and Women's Studies
- GWS 305 Feminist Theories

Core Electives (Complete one course)

- GWS/MAS 307 Chicana Feminist Theories
- GWS 309 Queer Theories
- GWS 325 Gender, Sexuality, and International Migration
- GWS/MAS 358 US Third World Feminisms
- GWS/HIST/POL 386 Race/Gender: Genealogies, Formations, Politics

Upper-Division Electives (Complete six units)

Any GWS or cross listed courses with course number 300 or higher.

Other Electives (Complete six units)

Any GWS or cross listed courses, except GWS 150 or GWS 160

- Minimum of 21 units with 12 upper division units are required.
- No more than 6 units of Internship, Independent Study, or Preceptorship (293, 299, 299H, 391, 393, 399, 399H, 493, 499, 499H) may fulfill requirements in the GWS major.
- GWS 240 should be taken before GWS 305 or Core Electives.
- GWS 305 is a suggested prerequisite to Core Electives.
- GWS 496A Senior Capstone Seminar: Reflections on Gender and Transformations is open to students in the GWS minor in either their junior or senior year.